

Towards Shock-Responsive Safety Nets: the Case of Somalia

Issues in moving from a humanitarian-dominated aid landscape & Advantages of long-term planning for resilience and more cost-effective development

Friday 22 June 2018, 12:30 – 14:00

Lunchtime Conference External Cooperation Infopoint

Introduction

- Philippe Thomas

Head of Sector, Resilience to Food crisis,
DEVCO C1 – Rural Development, Food
Security, Nutrition

Presentations

- Ric Goodman

Technical Director Resilience, DAI

- Nisar Majid

(PhD), Somali Expert

Conference language: English

Language Q&A session: English

Copyright: ©Nisar Majid

The conference will examine how the current development cooperation and humanitarian assistance in Somalia, especially cash transfers, could provide a case study and the foundation for multi-year large-scale emergency safety net programmes in protracted crises.

our world
our dignity
our future