Petr is the Global Partnerships & Programs Director at Impact Hub, a global network of entrepreneurial communities, programs, and workspaces that inspire, connect and catalyze social and environmental impact. Developing local entrepreneurial ecosystems and supporting impact-driven enterprises from idea to operations and scale, Impact Hub hosts a diverse community of 16,000 members in more than 100 cities around the world.

Together with his team, Petr develops and manages strategic partnerships around Impact Hub’s global and regional initiatives and programs. Before joining Impact Hub, Petr led a number of innovation programs at Vodafone. Previously he worked at AIESEC International, where he managed the global business development team. Born and raised in the Czech Republic and currently based in Prague, Petr has lived in the US, the Netherlands, and Austria. He is a proud father, and a passionate traveller, mountain biker and mountaineer.