Research and Innovation

Where & how are Research & Innovation fostering Job Creation?

Maria da Graça Carvalho, Member of the European Parliament - Luc Soete*, Professor of International Economic Relations, Rector, Maastricht University - Barbara Haering*, Chief Executive of Econcept Inc., Switzerland

* Members of the European Research and Innovation Area Board

Like the United States and Japan, Europe focuses its strategy on Research and Innovation (R&I) as its best means to get out of the economic crisis.

But will this strategy lead to the creation of sufficient new jobs in host countries?

Come and find out at the session organised by the Innovation policy department of the European Commission.
